

HOMELESSNESS

If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person?

- 1 John 3:17 -

- AWARENESS -

The world tries to ignore our homeless communities. When they can't ignore it anymore, then it starts to frustrate them. Sometimes they don't see an answer that is compassionate. The Bible says that when we see someone in need, we should help them and show them compassion.

- ACTION -

We can give our money, resources and time to help those who are homeless. Mosaic has a homeless ministry that delivers food throughout the city every other Thursday. We also have pre-made "Street Ministry Bags" with food and other necessities available in the Lobby. Grab one, add a personal note about God's love, and hand it out when you pass someone in need on the street.

- SHARE -

A smile can go a long way to help share Christ's love to our homeless community. Being ignored never feels good. Instead, let's play our part in making sure the homeless feel seen, loved, and part of our family. Even something as simple as saying "hello", or giving them a letter that lets them know that God loves them will make a big impact!

- QUESTION -

How can you respond when you see a homeless person on the street? What can you do to help those in need?
